Your opportunity to let Wisconsin's legislative leaders know what's important to our state's municipal electric utilities

As a public power advocate, you are in the best position to talk to lawmakers about the impact of their actions at the local level. Join us in Madison for MEUW's "Day at the Capitol." You'll be representing not only your public power community, but also the nearly 300,000 Wisconsinites who get their electricity from a community-owned utility.

Who Should Attend

- Municipal electric utility staff and leaders
- Mayors, city council members, utility commissioners and board members
- Others who want to get involved and advocate for public power

Why Attend

- Influence those who make decisions impacting your community's future
- Help educate legislative leaders about the issues affecting public power
- Expand your knowledge and help advocate for public power with your elected representatives
- Communicate the value and advantages of public power to legislators and their staffs during small group visits to the State Capitol
- Network with and learn from public power peers
- Hear about the political landscape from MEUW's government affairs partners

Program Schedule

- 8:30 a.m. Arrival and networking
- 9:15 a.m. Informational session
 - Introduction to the issues
 - Presentation and plan for the day
- 10:00 a.m. Small guided groups will visit Senate and Assembly offices and leave behind informational materials
- 11:30 a.m. Group lunch and de-brief
- 1:00 p.m. Program concludes
